EYNSFORD CONCERT BAND
featuring
Crispian Steele-Perkins – Trumpet

CONDUCTOR
JOHN HUTCHINS

Sunday 30th May 8 pm

The Eynsford Concert Band is a community wind band based in the village of Eynsford Kent, England. Since its inception in 1972 the band has rapidly developed into a successful group of talented musicians, having performed many hundreds of times in theatres, parks and gardens. Any profits gained are invested back into the band and their goals are achievement, enjoyment and friendship for all.

The band has played with the London Philharmonic Orchestra in the Royal Albert Hall and performed several times at the Queen Elizabeth Hall on London's South Bank. The band has recorded two albums and tours regularly in the UK and abroad.

Crispian Steele-Perkins is one of the world's most respected virtuoso trumpeters, well-known for his concerto and solo appearances all over the globe. His career began as an orchestral musician and he later went on to do work for film and television soundtracks. His playing is heard on James Bond, Ghandi, Jaws, Batman and Dr. Who among many others. Steele-Perkins collects, restores and plays pre-1900 early natural trumpets (without valves). 'Considered to be the world's leading player of the Baroque Trumpet.' Continuo Magazine, USA

John Hutchins has performed worldwide and with orchestras such as the Royal Opera House Orchestra, the Ulster Orchestra and the Philharmonia. John is a keen exponent of baroque music specialising in the natural trumpet. He performs and records with some of the world's finest Baroque ensembles. John Hutchins was married in Christ Church Cathedral, Waterford in 2002!
