Thank you for your support

EYNSFORD CONCERT BAND

Welcome to tonight's concert and to a new era for the Eynsford Concert Band.

I would like to thank you, our audience, for your continued support and encouragement. Without you, our performances would be pointless and we would not be able to afford to undertake many of our adventures.

I have a personal ambition to advance the band's musicality and professionalism. I hope you will see these advances through the variety of our programmes and in the way in which they are performed.

I hope that you will indulge me while I try new things, my only promise is that I will do my best to make our concerts as engaging and as entertaining as possible! Any feed back is always welcome, so please let me know.

Tonight's offering comes under the central theme of "Musical Stories". From the Czech river Vltava and its journey into Prague, via an account of the Robert Burns poem Tam o' Shanter to the great jazzy tunes of Bernstein's West Side Story and Gershwin's Porgy & Bess, I hope to provide something for all tastes.

So sit back, relax and let Eynsford Concert Band tell you a story.

John Hutchins
Conductor

JOHN HUTCHINS - CONDUCTOR

John Hutchins has enjoyed connections with the Eynsford Concert Band for some time and was appointed MD in 2003.

Having graduating from the Royal Academy of Music with a first class honours degree, John is now enjoying a career as a freelance trumpeter. He has performed worldwide with orchestras such as the Royal Opera House Orchestra, the Ulster Orchestra and the Philharmonia.

John is also a keen exponent of baroque music specialising on the natural trumpet (without valves). He performs and records with some of the world's finest Baroque ensembles including The Kings Consort, The Sixteen, the Orchestra of the Age of the Enlightenment, Florilegium, the Hanover Band, the New York Collegium and the Stuttgart Baroque Orchestra.

Brass coaching features highly in John's career encompassing work as far a field as the Vietnamese Symphony Orchestra and Wells International School of Music. He has also contributed to various brass publications and co-written a study book for trumpet. He currently teaches at Junior Trinity College and is Professor of Baroque trumpet at the Royal Academy of Music.
