Message from our Musical Director

As the last firework leaves a perennial dent in the bonnet of my car I know it is time to begin preparing for Christmas. The high street have been offering deals on Yuletide tat since October, the Oxford Street lights are adding to the pressure on the National Grid (I believe you can see the blaze from space) and the Eynsford Concert Band are now rehearsing ready for the forthcoming family concerts in December.

This year I am delighted to announce a record sell-out at the Mike Jagger Centre this Christmas. For those who have missed out there is another chance to see us at St Nicholas' Church in Sevenoaks on 10 December where the band will accompany the church and school choir to help celebrate the meaning of Christmas.

Alongside seasonal rehearsals we have been furiously practicing an Adam Gorb piece 'Yiddish Dances' for a regional festival in Colchester. Under the direction of the British Association of Symphonic and Wind Ensembles, the band is hoping for more national recognition.

Next year promise to be busy opening with a concert in May under the title of 'Cries of London' including a piece of the same name and music associated with our great capital city. At the other end of the year we will present two concerts at the Mike Jagger Centre adding a matinee to embrace our young audience.

I am excited to see the band thriving. With an audition process in place to ensure standards remain high, I am pleased that we have very few remaining vacancies for new players.

To enquire about future events please check for information on the easy access website at <http://www.eynsfordconcertband.co.uk>

The band is indebted to your continued support and on behalf of the entire ensemble I wish you a very Happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Band Tour - Cruising the Fjords of Norway

This August, the Eynsford Concert Band were honoured to play as part of the entertainment programme on board Fred.Olsen's Black Watch cruise of the Fjords of Norway. For 8 days, the band and a large group of friends and family were paying passengers aboard this magnificent ship, able to enjoy a perfect summer holiday together.

The bonus was performing four onboard concerts for the enjoyment of the passengers and crew. These included 'Broadway Showstoppers' evening entertainment, an 'At the Movies' afternoon Matinee and a dramatic outdoors 'Proms' performance with the magnificent Nordfjord as our backdrop as we cruised away from Olden.

After leaving Dover, our ports of call were:

- Bergen, Hordaland
- Fjaerland, Sognefjord
- Balestrand, Sognefjord
- Olden, Nordfjord
- Eidfjord, Hardangerfjord
- Kirkwall, Orkneys

A great time was had by all and this is something the band will be considering repeating in the future.

John Hutchins

John Hutchins has enjoyed connections with the Eynsford Concert Band for many years and was appointed Musical Director in 2003.

Having graduated from the Royal Academy of Music with a first class honours degree, John is now enjoying a career as a freelance trumpeter. He has performed worldwide with orchestras such as the Royal Opera House Orchestra, the Ulster Orchestra and the Philharmonia.

John is also a keen exponent of baroque music specialising on the natural trumpet (an instrument without valves). He performs and records regularly with some of the world's finest Baroque ensembles including the Kings Consort, The Sixteen, the Orchestra of the Age of the Enlightenment, Florilegium, the Hanover Band, the New York Collegium and the Stuttgart Baroque Orchestra.

Brass coaching features highly in John's career encompassing work as far a field as the Vietnamese Symphony Orchestra and Wells International School of Music. He has also contributed to various brass publications and co-written a study book for trumpet. He currently teaches at Junior Trinity College and is Professor of Baroque trumpet at the Royal Academy of Music where John has recently been elected an Associate.

O Come All Ye Faithful

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him,
Born the King of Angels:

O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
Christ the Lord.

God of God,
Light of Light,
Lo! he abhors not the Virgin's womb;
Very God,
Begotten not created:

Lo, star-led chieftains,
Magi, Christ adoring,
Offer him incense, gold and myrrh;
We to the Christ-child,
Bring our heart's oblations

Sing, choirs of Angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above,
Glory to God
In the highest:

O Little Town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth;
For Christ is born of Mary;
And, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming;
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray.
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

Hark! the Herald Angels Sing

Hark! the herald Angels sing
Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled:
Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies,
With the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

Hark! the herald Angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

Christ, by highest heaven adored
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold him come
Offspring of a Virgin's womb!
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,
Hail the incarnate Deity!
Pleased as man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.

Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Risen with healing in his wings;
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.
