Supporting Veterans Since 1919

We are proud to have provided support for those who were fortunate enough to return from the beaches in 1944.

Although the services we offer our nation's veterans have changed to keep up with their individual needs, our dedication to those who have given so much and the need for our support remains as strong as it was 80 years ago.

FESTIVAL OF REMEMBRANCE

COMMEMORATING THE 80TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE D-DAY LANDINGS

The image shows two women in British Legion uniforms standing in front of the Apple Market entrance. They are both wearing dark blue jackets with gold epaulettes, white shirts, black ties, and white sailor-style hats with the Legion crest. The woman on the left is smiling and holding a red bucket with the 'POPPY APPEAL' logo. The woman on the right is also smiling and holding a blue box with 'LIVE ON' and 'PLEASE HELP THE POPPY APPEAL' text. Both have red poppies pinned to their jackets. The background features the green metal structure of the market and a sign that reads 'APPLE MARKET'.
